

IDENTIFY THE FEDERAL HOLIDAYS

By Lea Blanton
Alamance Community College

Teaching Objective

Students will identify the Federal holidays.

Overview

The following handout consists of graphics to help students internalize mental pictures as an aid to remembering/naming the Federal holidays. Any calendar that documents the holidays will make a useful reference for those who need it.

Answer Key

New Year's Day

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

¹Presidents' Day

Memorial Day

Independence Day

Labor Day

Columbus Day

Veterans Day

Thanksgiving

Christmas

¹Commonly called Presidents' Day, the Federal Statute designates this day as Washington's Birthday. See any of the following web sites:

<http://stockholm.usembassy.gov/Holidays/celebrate/presiden.html>

<http://familyinternet.about.com/od/holidayfun/a/presidentsday.htm>

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Presidents_Day_\(United_States\))

http://score.rims.k12.ca.us/score_lessons/special_events/presidents_day/

The USCIS Civics and American Government Items for the Redesigned Naturalization Test uses Presidents' Day

Identify the Federal Holidays

Write the name of each holiday.

January

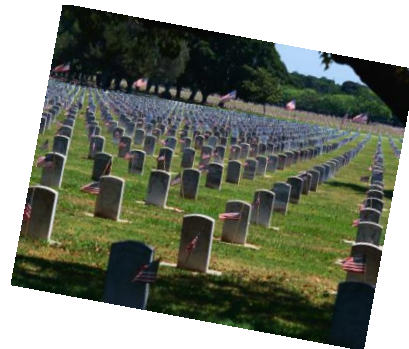

January

February

Washington

May

July

September

October

November

November

December

